

EU Commission publishes decisions on EURIBOR and LIBOR derivatives cartel agreements

The here-linked article, posted by Claudio Lombardi, is published on the “Osservatorio permanente sull’applicazione delle regole di concorrenza” (Antitrust Enforcement observatory).

The EU Commission has fined eight major International Banks for taking part in a cartel agreement in connection to derivatives’ markets in the European Economic Area. The overall fine amounts to 1,71 billion Euro.

The decisions are attached to the Article.