

About pictures

Dear reader! As of today 11.9.14 I start using as head pictures my own photos. I'll use takes made during my holidays and trips. Most of them are just details of bigger pictures: no faces or recognizable personal data should be displayed, this is my commitment.

Since I use my own pics, any copyright is reserved on each take, and on all takes taken together.

Should anyone note any protected property, please let me know, but I trust it will not happen.

Live long and prosper.
